

"PIEMONTE FOR ALL BY TURISMABILE": FREE HOLIDAY PACKAGES "FOR ALL"

Torino, 21 settembre 2015

"Piemonte for All by Turismabile" the new proposal of the Consulta per le Persone in Difficoltà – CPD within the project Turismabile Turisti Protagonisti, supported by Regione Piemonte will start today. The initiative, that promotes actions to raise awareness with regard to disability themes and Turismo per Tutti, will give out three complimentary holiday packages "For All" in Piemonte for two people, including: a voucher for a trip, room and board and tourist activities.

To participate you need to upload a picture about "Tourism for All" on the web site www.turismabile.it/contest/. The event is free and reserved for citizens over the age of 18 resident in Italy, Germany, France, Greece, Spain, Belgium. It is exclusively addressed to candidates who present physical or sensorial disability.

All the uploaded photographs will be visible on the web page www.turismabile.it/contest/gallery accompanied by a "Like" button and a "Share" button, that can be clicked by Facebook users during the site browsing. In this way you are voting for the photo.

The two pictures that at midnight on 23rd November will have the largest number of Like and Share will receive a free holiday package "For All" in Piedmont for two people. A third free gift will be awarded by the project staff (Turismabile Turisti Protagonisti) with fair and honest judgment (written in the Regulations), during the conference "Tourism for All: autonomy wins". It will be held in Asti (Italy) 10th December, 2015 at Palco 19 (Via Ospedale 19). It will be streamed online.
